

Northrop Grumman Supplier Excellence Awards

February 26, 2024

Northrop Grumman to Celebrate 76 Supplier Excellence Awardees on March 14

Northrop Grumman's portfolio of programs, networks, and capabilities are designed to meet our customers' current and future needs – from one-of-a-kind technologies to innovative systems, products and solutions. Our suppliers are integral partners in our continued commitment to excellence in performance and program deliverables.

On March 14, we will celebrate a select group of suppliers at the Northrop Grumman Supplier Excellence Awards. These suppliers have performed at the highest level with a focus on performance, agility, and quality to help us deliver our advanced technology solutions with speed.

Watch for a full listing of the award winners in March following the awards event.
